James Ebert

James William Ebert, 46, of St. Paul, Minn., formerly of Burlington, died at 7:45 a.m. Sunday, Feb. 10, 2002, at Lexington Care Center in St. Paul

Born Sept. 15, 1955, in Burlington, he was the son of William Fredrick and Caroline E. Taylor Ebert.

Mr. Ebert was a 1973 graduate of Burlington High School. He also was a graduate of Southeastern Community College and the University of Minnesota and was a Sloane Fellow at the London School of Business. He was a certified public accountant and financial consultant.

He was a member of St. Luke's United Church of Christ and was a world traveler who enjoyed rappelling, scuba diving, biking and skiing in the Alps in Italy and Switzerland. He worked in Russia and, most recently, worked in the Czech Republic, Poland and Hungary as a partner in Riverside Investment.

Survivors include his parents, of Burlington; one sister, Joan Deutsch of St. Paul; and one niece.

He was preceded in death by his grandparents.

The family will receive friends from 7 to 8:30 p.m. Thursday in Prugh's Chapel.

The funeral for Mr. Ebert will be at 11 a.m. Friday in the chapel, with the Rev. Vicki Engelmann officiating. Burial will be in Aspen Grove Cemetery.

Memorials have been established for his church and Mayo Clinic Cancer Research.
