

Jerry Hicks

Jerry Lee Hicks, 49, of Bethel Island, Calif., died suddenly Thursday, Aug. 4, 2005, at his home.

Born Aug. 20, 1955, in Burlington, he was the son of Tom and Phyllis Myers Hicks.

Mr. Hicks was a steel worker.

He was a Burlington High School graduate. He enjoyed sprint car racing and was an avid fisherman.

Survivors include one son, Ryan Hicks of Citrus Heights, Calif.; three brothers, Tom Hicks of rural Carman, Ill., Joe Hicks of rural Yarmouth and Monty Hicks of Oakville; and several nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by his parents.

His body has been cremated according to his wishes.

A memorial service for Mr. Hicks will be near his home in California.

Ascension Burial & Cremation, 101 Sand Creek Road, Suite 303, Brentwood, Calif. 94513, is in charge of arrangements.

Published in the Burlington Hawk-Eye - 8/18/2005