

Randall Manley

Randall A. Manley, 53, of Burlington died Thursday, Dec. 25, 2008, as a result of a myocardial infarction in Memphis, Mo.

Born March 31, 1955, in Burlington he was the son of Carroll W. and Marjorie G. Samuelson Manley. He married Nancy Rohde.

Mr. Manley worked for Burlington Northern Santa Fe Railroad for 30 years. He was a 1973 graduate of Burlington High School. He was associated with Bethany Lutheran Church when he was younger. He was a 30-year member of Brotherhood of Maintenance of Way Union, Alcoholics Anonymous, Narcotics Anonymous and a former member of the Eagles. He enjoyed working, walking through Crapo Park and by the river, reading and racing.

Survivors include one daughter, Carol Ann Manley of Kimberly, Wis.; one son, Ryan A. Manley of Milwaukee; his mother, Marjorie G. Breuer of Burlington; two sisters, Sandi J. Mumm of Burlington and Theresa Dirth of Round Rock, Texas; his former wife, Nancy Manley of Two Rivers, Wis.; nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by his father and his grandparents.

Friends may call from 8 a.m. to 2 p.m. Tuesday at Lunning Chapel in Burlington where the family will receive friends from 1 to 2 p.m. The body has been cremated.

The memorial service for Mr. Manley will be at 2 p.m. Tuesday at Lunning Chapel.

Memorials have been established for Alcoholics Anonymous and Narcotics Anonymous.